The screenshot shows a web-based matching game titled "Countries/Capitals". The interface is light blue with a white background for the game area. At the top, there is a title bar with a question mark icon. Below the title, instructions read: "Match countries and capitals using the words from the pool and the drop down connector." followed by the URL "www.eslgamesplus.com" and a detailed instruction: "Drag the words and place them on the placeholders on both side of the connector, select the appropriate connector from the drop-down list and click Submit." The game area contains a grid of 20 green buttons with white text, arranged in 5 rows and 4 columns. The buttons contain the following words: Berlin, Brasilia, Seoul, Ottawa, Canada, Madrid, Canberra, France, Paris, Egypt, Cairo, Bangkok, Beijing, Brazil, S. Korea, China, Australia, Spain, Thailand, and Germany. To the right of the grid is a vertical stack of controls: a timer showing "04 : 14", a "Score" button showing "0", "Restart" and "Leave Game" buttons, and a "Submit" button. At the bottom of the game area is a horizontal bar with a "Connector" dropdown menu and two empty placeholder slots.

This is a timed activity. You must finish within a given time. You must read the clues and then spell the word by dragging and dropping the correct letters in the right spelling order. Make sure you drop the first letter in the first empty space on the left.
