

Why should you learn English from songs?

USING MUSIC TO LEARN ENGLISH IS REALLY USEFUL, BUT SONGS CANNOT REPLACE TEXTBOOKS AND A NORMAL COURSE OF STUDY. IT IS BETTER TO USE MUSIC AS ADDITIONAL ENGLISH LESSONS IN YOUR FREE TIME AS AN OPPORTUNITY TO COMBINE BUSINESS WITH PLEASURE.

Learning English from songs is productive because you:

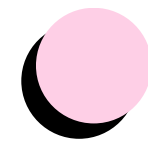

Learn idioms.

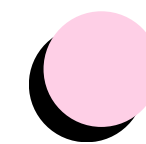

Get acquainted with foreign culture.

Improve your pronunciation.

Learn English anywhere.

Improves the understanding of English by ear.

Increase your vocabulary

Let's say you are at an average level of knowledge, understand the texts of modern pop artists and then decide to return to the "classics" and listen to, for example, Frank Sinatra "My way"

New words

exemption

bite off

subside

You study idioms.

LINKIN PARK

NUMB

You study idioms.

"...put under the pressure of walking in your shoes..."

How do I translate this????

You study idioms.

13,544,155,690 visits served

in someone's shoes

Word / Article

Starts with

Ends with

Text

in someone's shoes

COMMON If you talk about being in someone's shoes, you are describing how you would feel or act if you were in the same situation as them. Stop and think how you would feel if you were in his shoes. If I were in her shoes, I'd probably want an explanation. If you were in his shoes what would you do? Note: You can also say that you wouldn't like to be in someone's shoes, meaning that you would not like to be in the same situation as them. I wouldn't like to be in Bryce's shoes when Kathy finds out what he's done.

See also: shoe

"CITE"  Collins COBUILD Idioms Dictionary, 3rd ed. © HarperCollins Publishers 2012

Improve your understanding of English by ear.

It is necessary to know how to properly learn English from songs in order to get the most knowledge.

Improve your pronunciation.

Listening to a good pronunciation, we involuntarily copy it and transfer it into our own speech.

Learn English anywhere.

Songs and lyrics to them are easy to find on the Internet in free access, so this is one of the most accessible methods of improving English. In addition, you can easily save these materials to your phone or tablet and work with them on the road, in the car.

Get acquainted with foreign culture.

Songs always reflect the mentality, certain events in the country, people's moods, etc. Music in English can tell you about the prevailing order in the country, people's views on life and the problems of society.